

Welcome to the July 2011 edition of the Edinburgh Economy Watch – a monthly update on the performance of the city's economy produced by the Economic Development Unit of the City of Edinburgh Council.

What is it?

The Economy Watch allows readers to track the impact that the current global and national economic conditions are having on Edinburgh through monitoring a selection of economic indicators and comparing these with other cities. Information is displayed in graphs with some brief analysis. Only frequently updated indicators are used so that the latest trends can be clearly viewed. Data is displayed for up to 18 months in the past where possible.

Comparator Cities

Where comparable statistics are available, Edinburgh is benchmarked against the average of a suite of eleven comparator cities. The comparator cities are Birmingham, Bristol, Cardiff, Glasgow, Leeds, Liverpool, London, Manchester, Newcastle, Norwich and Nottingham. These cities have been selected as they represent a diverse range of mid-sized and large UK cities.

Traffic Lights

Where possible, each indicator's performance is assessed by means of a "traffic light" system comparing it against the previous month, year and comparator cities. Green signifies improvement, amber relative stability and red worsening.

(1) Investment

Summary Table

Indicator	Edinburgh this month	Year to Date	YTD Comparison with 2010
Business Gateway Start-ups	102	340	↓ 22.2%
Business Incorporations	399	786	↑ 20.7%
Large-scale Foreign Direct Investments	4	10	↑ 233%

- Business Gateway start-up figures for June are lower than for the same month last year, but remain above contracted target levels.
- Business incorporations in the city are 20.7% up for the year to date and rising more quickly than comparator cities.
- A total of 10 large scale FDI projects have been recorded in the city so far this year.

1.1 Business Start-ups (Monthly Trend ▼; Annual Trend ▼; Relative to Comparator Cities N/A)

1.2 New Incorporations (Monthly Trend ▲; Annual Trend ▲; Relative to Comparator Cities —)

A total of 1,213 new businesses incorporated in Edinburgh during the three-months to May 2011. This represents an increase of 15.2% on the same period last year compared against a 4.3% increase recorded in comparator cities across the same time period.²

1.3 Foreign Direct Investment (Monthly Trend —; Annual Trend ▲; Relative to Comparator Cities N/A)

Figure 1d shows that 32 large-scale Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) projects in Edinburgh have been recorded by FDI Markets over the past 18 months.³

² Source: FAME. The comparator cities figure is an average of the monthly number of incorporations in Birmingham, Bristol, Cardiff, Glasgow, Leeds, Liverpool, Manchester, Newcastle, Norwich and Nottingham. NB Figures are provisional and subject to change. Figures may be added to the database retrospectively.

(2) Labour Market

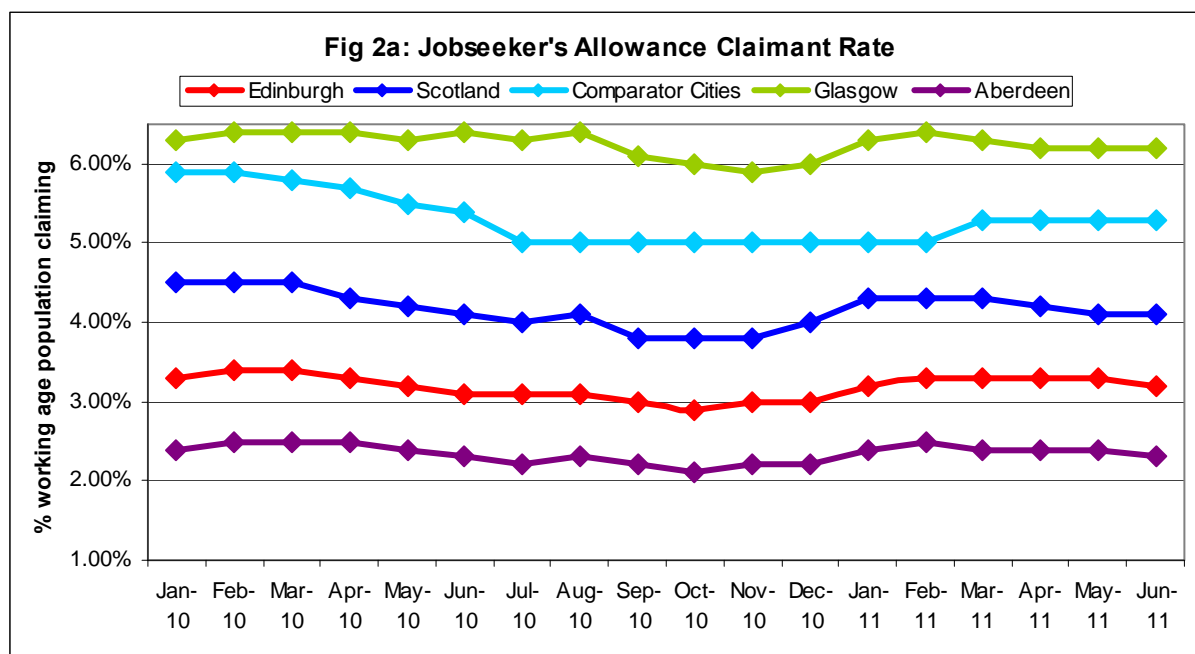

Summary Table

Indicator	Edinburgh in latest month	Comparison with this month last year
Jobseeker's Allowance Claimant Count	10,896	↑ 3.1%
Jobseeker's Allowance Claimant Rate	3.2	↑ 0.1% points
Vacancies Advertised by Jobcentre Plus	3,002	↑ 32.8%
Claimants Per Vacancy	3.6	↓ 1.1% points

- The labour market is a lagging indicator following a recession.
- The difference in claimant count between Edinburgh and comparator cities has widened slightly since the beginning of 2011.
- There are now 3.6 Jobseeker's Allowance claimants for every vacancy advertised by Jobcentre Plus. Scotland's ratio is 6.2 and the comparator cities' average is 5.8.

2.1 Claimant Rate (Monthly Trend ▼; Annual Trend ▲; Relative to Comparator Cities ▼)

The claimant rate of Edinburgh fell by 0.1% points in June 2011 from May 2011, 3.2% of the working age population. Edinburgh's claimant rate continues to compare favourably with that of Scotland (4.1%) and comparator cities (5.3%).⁴

⁴ Source: Department for Work and Pensions. The unemployment rate is defined as the percentage of the working age population claiming Jobseeker's Allowance. The comparator cities figure is an average of claimant counts in Birmingham, Bristol, Cardiff, Glasgow, Leeds, Liverpool, Manchester, Newcastle and Nottingham.

2.2 Claimant Differential (Monthly Trend ▲; Annual Trend ▲; Relative to Comparator Cities N/A)

Figure 2b highlights the difference in the unemployment rate between Edinburgh and Scotland and comparator cities. In June 2011, Edinburgh's unemployment rate was 0.9 percentage points below that of Scotland and 2.1 percentage points below that of comparator cities, slightly wider than that recorded at the beginning of this year.⁵

2.3 Job Vacancies⁶ (Monthly Trend ▲; Annual Trend ▲; Relative to Comparator Cities ▲)

Figure 2c shows that the number of job vacancies advertised by Jobcentre Plus in Edinburgh during June 2011 was 33% higher than that recorded in the same month last year.⁷ The total across all comparator cities was down by 17.5% compared against June 2010.

⁶ Due to problems identified with the source data supplied by DWP, it is presently not possible to report vacancy figures for September 2010.

Figure 2d shows the breakdown of job vacancies in Edinburgh notified by Jobcentre Plus by the sector they appear in. Vacancies notified by Jobcentre Plus represent approximately one third of all vacancies. June 2011 saw over 3,000 jobs notified. Jobs in the financial and construction sector saw a growth of 62% and 175% respectively compared to June 2010, whereas distribution, hotels and restaurants saw a decrease of 14%.

2.4 Vacancy Ratio⁸ (Monthly Trend ▼; Annual Trend ▼; Relative to Comparator Cities ▲)

In June 2011, there were 3.6 Jobseeker's Allowance claimants in Edinburgh for every vacancy advertised by Jobcentre Plus. Figure 2e shows that the ratio compares favourably with Scotland (6.2 claimants per vacancy) and comparator cities (5.8 claimants per vacancy) despite the gap between Edinburgh and comparator cities narrowing slightly during June 2011.

⁸ Due to problems identified with the source data supplied by DWP, it is presently not possible to report vacancy figures for September 2010.

2.5 Job News

Figure 2f details a number of job announcements made in Edinburgh over the month of June 2011.

(4) Housing

Summary Table

Indicator	Edinburgh in latest month	Comparison with this month last year
House Prices	£208,408	↓ 3.1%
House Sales	655	↓ 0.5%

- Average house prices in May 2011 remained steady at just under £210,000, this was 3.1% below the figure recorded in May 2010.
- 655 homes were sold in Edinburgh during May 2011, only slightly below the number recorded in May 2010.

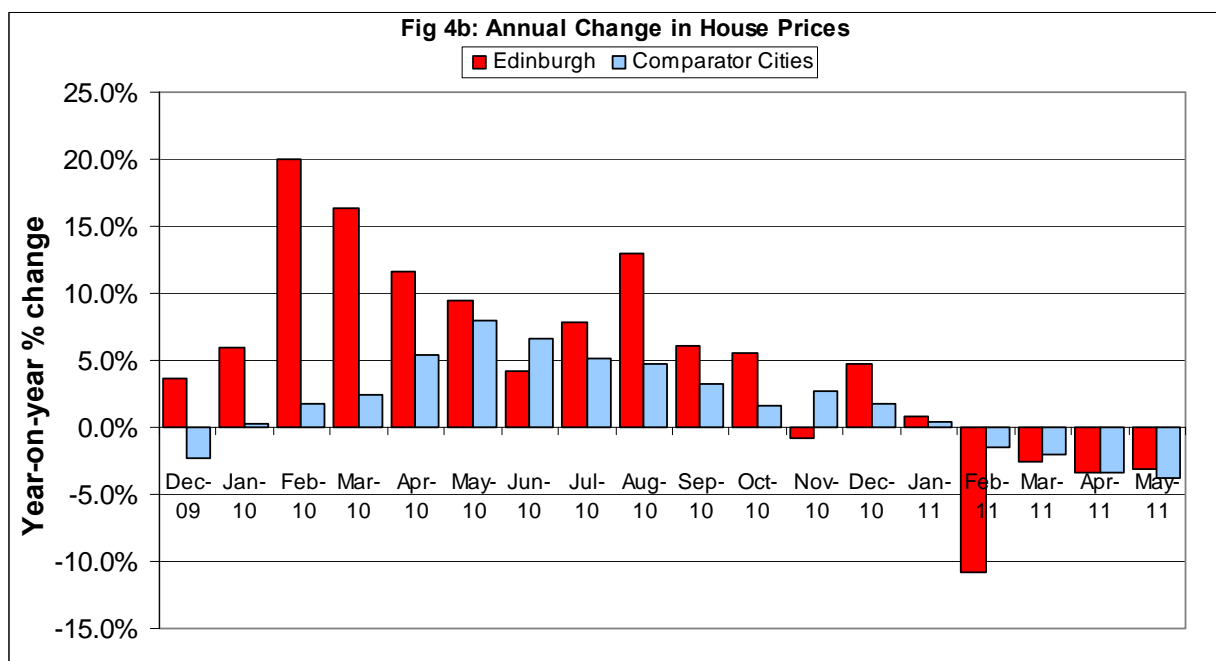

4.1 House Prices (Monthly trend —; Annual Trend ▼; Relative to Comparator Cities —)

The average house price in Edinburgh stayed around the same in May at £208,408. This is still significantly higher than the average across comparator cities, which also remained static in May and remained close to their 18 month average of £120,322.¹³

Figure 4b shows how prices have changed compared with the same month last year. House prices in Edinburgh during May 2011 were 3.1% below those recorded in May 2010. House prices in comparator cities also fell year-on-year by 3.7%.¹⁴

4.2 House Sales (Monthly trend ▲; Annual trend —; Relative to Comparator Cities N/A))

655 homes were sold in Edinburgh in May 2011. This represents 0.5% fewer houses sold compared to May 2010.¹⁵

(5) Planning and Development

Summary Table

Indicator	Edinburgh in latest 3 month period	Comparison with same period last year
Planning Applications Received	1,212	↑ 3.3%
Building Warrants Issued	1,082	↓ 9.2%

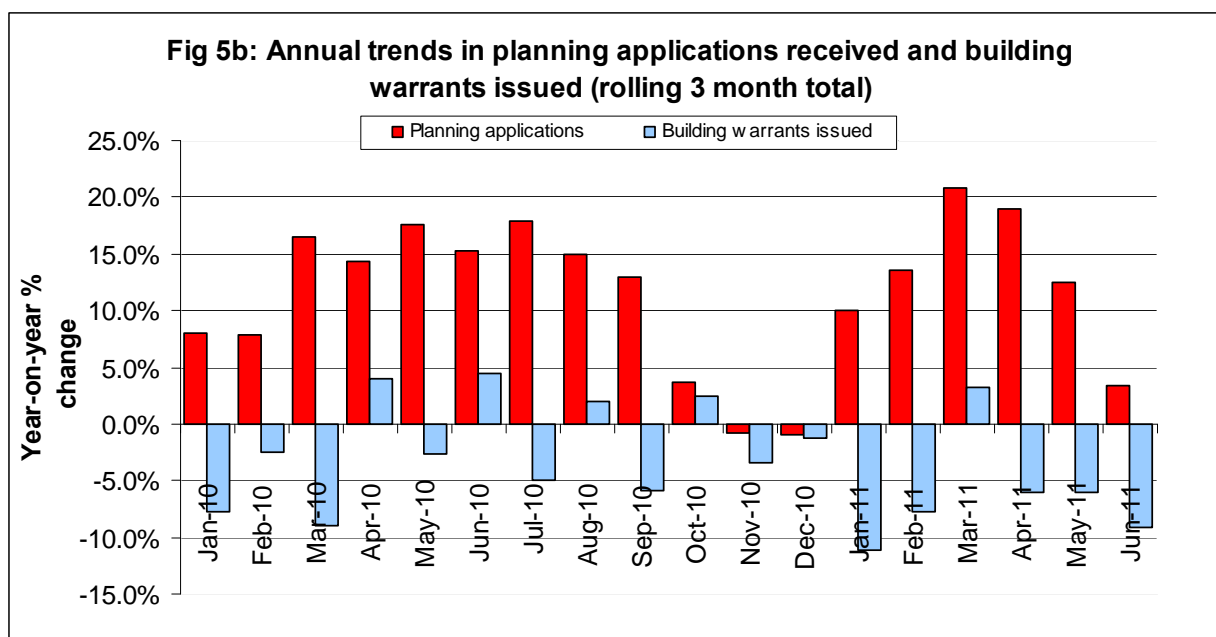

- The City of Edinburgh Council received 1,212 planning applications in the three-month period ending in June 2011, which is 3.3% higher than the same period last year.
- The City of Edinburgh Council issued 1,082 building warrants in the three-month period ending in June 2011, which is 9.2% lower than the same period last year.

5.1 Planning Applications Received (Monthly Trend ▼; Annual Trend ▲; Comparator Cities N/A) and Building Warrants Issued (Monthly Trend —; Annual Trend ▼)

In the three-month period ending in June 2011, the City of Edinburgh Council received 1,212 planning applications, 5% fewer than the number received in the three months to May 2011, but a 3.3% increase on that recorded over the same period in 2010. A total of 1,082 building warrants were issued in the three months to June, a drop of 9.2% compared against the same period in 2010.¹⁶ These trends are illustrated in Fig 5a and Fig 5b.

¹⁶ Source: City of Edinburgh Council, Planning Information team. The number of planning applications can vary substantially from month to month, so year on year comparisons of a single month would be likely to fluctuate quite widely and obscure trends. Using a rolling 3 month average gives a truer representation of the underlying trends.

5.3 Number of Proposal of Application Notices (Monthly Trend ▼; Annual Trend N/A; Comparator Cities ▼)

Proposal of application notices (PANs) have been a statutory requirement for “major” developments since August 2009. Fig 5c shows the number of PANs received by month in Scotland’s four city local authorities. There have been 36 PANs received in Edinburgh over the last 12 months – more than any other Scottish city. Edinburgh’s Proposal of Application Notices received decreased by a third in June 2011 from May whereas the comparator cities total stayed at 9.

Fig 5c: Proposals of Application Notices Received (4 Scottish City Local Authorities)

	Aberdeen	Dundee	Edinburgh	Glasgow
July 2010	1	0	4	3
August 2010	5	0	2	4
September 2010	0	0	2	4
October 2010	0	0	3	4
November 2010	0	1	4	3
December 2010	0	1	3	3
January 2011	3	0	1	1
February 2011	0	0	3	1
March 2011	0	1	3	2
April 2011	0	0	1	1
May 2011	1	3	6	5
June 2011	3	1	4	5
Total	13	7	36	33
